EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

BURLARS BUSY IN STANFORD AGAIN

Store of George H. Farris Entered, and $3 Secured—Intruder Visits Cook Home.

Burglars have been busy in Stanford again the past week, and housekeepers are keeping things locked tight nowadays and sleeping with pistols under their pillows.

The grocery store of George H.
Farris was entered and robbed early Wednesday morning, and that evening an intruder appeared at the home of Mrs. Lelia Cook on East Main street and badly frightened her young daughter, Miss Mary Shepherd Cook, who was alone in the house at the time.

The young thief, who effected an entrance into Farris' store is believed to be the same one who robbed Cummins & Wearen's dry goods store a few weeks ago. His pains at the latest scene of his crime were not so well rewarded for he only got $3 this time. A drummer sleeping in one of the rooms of the St. Asaph Hotel with a window on Somerset avenue, heard the thief at work on the side door through which entrance was effected into the basement of the store. He did not suspect anything however, and did not give an alarm. Mr. Farris had left his safe open with but the $3 in it, so that the thief had no trouble in getting it. He did not touch anything else in the street, and as in the Cummins & Wearen burglary, seemed to be after money alone. There are several clues to the identity of the young man who is doing this prowling at night and unless he is mighty careful in the future, he is going to find himself behind the bars.

The intruder at the Cook home, made his visit while Mrs. Cook was at prayer meeting and Miss Mary Shepherd Cook was at home studying her lessons. She heard the man come up from the cellar, but gave an alarm and neighbors quickly responding, he made himself very scarce, and could not be identified.

As usually treated, a sprained ankle will disable a man for three or four weeks, but by applying Chamberlain's Liniment freely as soon as the injury is received, and observing the directions with each bottle, a cure can be effected in from two to four days. For sale by all dealers.

They're for weak kidneys. Stanford people gladly recommend Doan's.

Mrs. S. J. Hubbell, Lancaster St., Stanford, Ky., says: "I know that Doan's Kidney Pills helped me and I therefore, have not the least hesita-serious, I was nevertheless annoyed a great deal. My back ached almost constantly and sometimes became so lame that it required a great effort for me to stoop. There were also other symptoms of kidney complaint that caused me distress. Since using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Shugars & Tanner's Drug Store, all these troubles have disappeared and my health has improved."

JAMES A. BEAZLEY.

Set An Example in Lancaster Worthy of Emulation.

The Danville Messenger on Tuesday contained the following tribute to James A. Beazley, of Lancaster, a transplanted Lincolnite which will be appreciated by his many friends here. The Messenger says:

Mr. James A. Beazley, of Lancaster, was here yesterday mingling with the court day crowd. Mr.
Beazley is a candidate for county judge in Garrard, and knowing ones say he is a winner. Mr. Beazley is a gentleman in every thing the word implies, and if elected will give the people a clean administration. Several years ago Lancaster was honey combed with blind tigers. In fact they became so numerous that they were run as openly as a licensed saloon. Several officers were appointed, but the tiger continued to flourish like a green bay tree. Finally a number of the best citizens of the town held a meeting to devise ways and means to have the law enforced.

Many plans were suggested, but all had been tried and failed. Finally, some gentlemen arose and among other things, said: "Gentlemen, the time has come when some good citizen must take a sacrifice—must give up his business, accept the chief of police's place, risk his life and this evil can be stopped." For a time there was silence, but Mr. Beazley arose and said, "Well gentlemen, I realize, fully, that the tiger operators, and especially their backers, will not hesitate to kill any man who attempts to stop their nefarious business. I have a wife and several children, am a man of limited means but I am so anxious to see Lancaster wrested from this grip of lawlessness, and the destruction of the hell-pits, that I will accept the place for a short time." He took the place, appointed a good deputy—Mr. Pollard—and while many attempts were made to kill him, and desperadoes threatened him, he landed many tiger operators in jail and soon Lancaster was as dry as a powder horn. Mr. Pollard's deputy, was killed, however, one court day on the notorious "Battle Row."

Beazley soon had the town as quiet as a country grave yard, and returned to his business pursuits. Mr.
Beazley's resignation was followed by the appointment of Luther Herron, who has since kept up the good work, and it is a fact that today there is not a drop of liquor sold in Lancaster.

THAT'S THE SOLUTION.
(Danville Messenger.)

According to the Stanford Journal a local option election will be held in Lincoln county some time in December. The wets, it is alleged, are circulating petitions and receiving many signatures. The county is dry at present, but the wets claim Hus-tonville is being sold everywhere in open violation of the law. If this is their only reason for wanting saloons open, why not get some officers who will do their duty, thus saving expense and annoyance of an election?

PREACHERSVILLE.

Misses Mary Eliza and Kate Holtz claw, of Gilbert's Creek and Miss Jennie Rodgers, of Cedar Creek,

HARVEY HELM.

Says Democratic Party Must Keep Its Platform Pledges.

Congressman Harvey Helm was at Democratic headquarters Saturday, says the Louisville Times. He reports the Eighth district in excellent condition for the state ticket, and tendered his services to the Campaign Committee. When asked about his own race next year, he refused to discuss it other than to say that he would at the proper time make his announcement, adding that nothing should be done at the present time to interfere with the election of the splendid state ticket. Mr. Helm stated that the Democratic House at Washington has made it possible to elect a Democratic President next year; that this was done by religiously keeping their platform and campaign pledges, and that he naturally wants to serve under such an administration, when the services of veterans and not raw recruits will be needed. Parties like individuals he said must be on the square. "People are going to elect the Democratic ticket this fall," he said, "because they believe the General Assembly will be democratic, and will like the Democratic House at Washington, keep the pledges and covenants contained in the platform and that they have made with the people of Kentucky. They are going to give them another try. Should they refuse or fail to make good, it will be a long time before the party will again be instructed with power in this state."

The Danville Messenger Tuesday said of Mr. Helm: Hon. Harvey Helm was here yesterday and received an ovation from his many friends. Mr. Helm has done and is doing splendid work in Congress, and his record is one of which the people are justly proud. He standards well in Congress, as his assignment to several important committees will show. He has found several leaks in the war department and his energetic efforts will save Uncle Sam many dollars. Mr. Helm is a good man and is making a clean, useful record.

learned to love her. The bereaved family have our greatest sympathy in their time of sorrow.

he has been called as pastor to the M. E. church.

exchange office.

Enmett Gooch and family have been visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Nora Hays and Maude Singleton spent Sunday with Mrs. Will Leach.

Leach's health has failed him and he will have to leave his position as operator for a while.

Mr. V. C. Gilliland was elected principal teacher and Miss Lydia McKee assistant teacher in the graded school. Prof. Gilliland succeeds Mrs. Annie Neal as principal.

We are very glad to say that the King's Mountain school is progressing nicely again, and that both teachers are doing their best to make a good and successful school.

J. A. Dean, of Junction City was here on business last Saturday.

Mr. Wallace Walter spent a few days in Stanford last week.

Mrs. G. A. Walter and little daugh-

Common Colds Must Be Taken Seriously.

For unless cured they sap the vitality and lower the vital resistance to more serious infection. Protect your children and yourself by the prompt use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and note its quick and decisive results. For coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and affections of the throat chest and lungs it is an every ready and valuable remedy. Shugars and Tanner.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS.

To Meet Next Wednesday To Perfect Organization.

A meeting of the patrons and friends of the graded school will be held in the chapel of the high school building next Wednesday afternoon at 3:15. This meeting is for the purpose of organizing the Parent-Teachers' Association which is for the purpose of securing a more united effort toward educational advancement. This meeting is to emphasize the personal touch and bring about a sympathetic relationship of patron and teacher. There are three classes of the laity who pass criticism upon the public schools.

1.—The chronic fault-finder who finds fault with everything in school town, church and state.

2.—The kicker who is prompted by personal or selfish motives.

3.—The man or woman who is prompted by loyalty to the public school, general interest in the young people or a genuine desire to promote the general welfare.

It is this last class who are most cordially invited to attend and take part in these sessions which are for the good of the community. It is the breeze that keeps the education, atmosphere clean. There is no war on honest criticism therefore, we welcome the opinion of the thoughtful man or woman.

This association is formed not to air personal grievances but to discuss plans for the betterment of the schools and to secure the hearty cooperation of parent and teacher.
The general good is the ultimatum.

SUBURBAN FARM FOR SALE

By authority of Judge L. L. Walker, executor of the will of T. B.
Walker, deceased, we offer for sale privately, a fertile farm of 265 acres, adjoining the city of Lancaster, Ky., on the northeast, which yields abundant crops of all the money making products which are more valuable than other crops because the marketing is much less.

It has a large, new barn and fronts beautifully on Richmond avenue, within the city limits, thus solving the problem of country and city life by combining them into one. A splendid farm, fronting on a concrete walk with the advantage of electric lights, telephone, pavement to churches, postoffice, stores and one of the best schools in the state, is easily worth $30 more per acre than the same kind of land far out in the country. We can sell it as it is, or include a handsome residence which can be connected by an intervening tract of land. The farm can be sold in several tracts.

Democratic Ticket.

For Governor—James B. McCreary.
For Lieut. Governor—E. J. McDermott.
For Treasurer—Thos. S. Rhea.
For Secretary of State—C. F. Creceus.
For Attorney General—James Garnett.
For Auditor—H. M. Baworth.
For State Superintendent of Schools—Barksdale Hamlett.
For Commissioner Agriculture—J. W. Newman.
For Clerk Court of Appeals—R. L. Greene.
For Railroad Commissioner—W. F. Klair.
For Circuit Judge—Charles A. Hardin.
For Representative—W. H. Shanks.

The statement that Ex-Governor Simon Boliver Buckner is strong for McCreary and the whole state ticket was good news to Democrats everywhere. Kentucky has never had a better Governor or more honorable man, and it is gratifying to see him showing renewed interest in the success of his party, while it is not probable that Governor Buckner will be able to make any speeches he will give other evidence of his interest and his commendation will win thousands of votes for the ticket.

It is gratifying to see these old leaders in the ranks once more. All of them realize that Democratic success in Kentucky this year will add materially in the election of a democratic president next year. These successions prove that the Republican statements that the Democracy of Kentucky is divided into factions are without a basis of truth. While the party has been through a very strenuous period, Democrats everywhere, have accepted the result and instead of flying at each others throats, are united in the list of Democratic states.

No man who really wants to see additional temperance legislation enacted by the next legislature will vote for Judge O'Rear for governor. Willson was elected under a promise of extending the county unit bill and he couldn't do it and a democratic legislature did not feel bound to fulfill any republican platform promises and it will be the same way if O'Rear is elected.

Speaker Champ Clark and Senator McCreary were given enthusiastic greetings at the former's old home in Lawrenceburg Wednesday. Fully ten thousand people were present, and another big crowd heard them at Harrodsburg that night.

The insurgent Republican headquarters at Washington is predicting Taft's defeat if he is nominated for President in 1912. Figures were made public last week giving the Democrats 328 and republicans 203 electoral votes in the event Taft heads the Republican ticket.

The Human Heart

The heart is a wonderful double pump, through the action of which the blood stream is kept sweeping round and round through the body at the rate of seven miles an hour. "Remember this, that our bodies will not stand the strain of over-work without good, pure blood any more than the engine can run smoothly without oil." After many years of study in the active practice of medicine, Dr. R. V. Pierce found that when the stomach was out of order, the blood impure and there were symptoms of general breakdown, a tonic made of the glyceric extract of certain roots was the best corrective. This he called

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Being made without alcohol, this "Medical Discovery" helps the stomach to assimilate the food, thereby curing dyspepsia. It is especially adapted to diseases attended with excessive tissue waste, notably in convalescence from various fevers, for thin-blooded people and those who are always "catching cold."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps for the French cloth-bound book of 1008 pages. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Next to stealing a red hot stove, this is a daring and bold achievement in the way of wholesale stealing.

W. J. Broughner, aged 76, one of Bracken county's leading farmers, was badly injured by an infuriated bull which he was trying to put in a stable. Mr. Broughner had left the animal to water, a rope being fastened to a ring in its nose, and when he tied the bull into the stall the animal attacked him and knocked him down breaking a number of his ribs.

By a deed just filed with the County Clerk of Scott county Simon Weil transfers 806 acres of land on the waters of orth Elkhorn and on the Georgetown and Frankfort pike, about seven miles from Georgetown, to L. V. Harkness, the New York horseman. The price paid was $40,000.

Sales were all the go this week and farmers were kept busy going from one to another. Reports of all have not yet gotten in, but prices are said to have been high on everything offered. At the sale of Sidney Dunbar near Hubble, cried by Col. T. D. English, a North Carolina man bought a pair of fine four-year-old mules for $577.50; Prices Bros., got a nice mare for $190; a pair of six-year-old mules were bought by Tiltford Alexander for $400; Jock Rankin bought a show horse by Carroll Preston for $185; a Missouri party bought a filly colt for $180; hogs sold at $6.65; sows and pigs brought from $20 to $40; J. H. Murphy bought a yearling horse colt by Montgomery Chief for $200.

Charles Lutes and Asa H. Jewell, of Lexington, left Thursday night for Goldsboro, North Carolina, where they will look over the field with a view to establishing headquarters for a retail mule market this winter. They propose to operate through the Carolinas, and intend to do most of their buying in Central Kentucky. Mr. Lutes is one of the best known young live stock men ever turned out in this section of Kentucky, and Mr. Jewell's experience will make the team a hard one to beat.

There were about 100 cattle on the market at Danville Monday but little trading as prices asked for them were considered much too high.

Charles Lutes sold this week to W. Moore & Sons, Lexington butchers, a car-load of 1,000-pound butcher cattle at 4 3-4 cents. Mr. Lutes bought of L. P. Yandell, of Boyle, for Simon Weil, four car-loads of 1,450 pound cattle for which he paid 6 1-4 cents.

The heavy rains of the past two weeks have caused remarkable growth in tobacco and made it green up, delaying the maturing of the crop. The cutting of the tobacco is being pushed as rapidly as possible. W. F. Kincaid, the well known local buyer, urges the importance of letting the tobacco get ripe before cutting and of handling it so as to cure it up sweet and bright. He says: "Don't be afraid of frost; a little may improve the tobacco. It is better than cutting it green. If your tobacco is late and the weather is cold when you house it, put enough charcoal fire in your barn to make an August heat and keep it that way until the tobacco is yellowed and well cured out."

Mason county is at present boasting of a freak or phenomenon in the shape of a pear tree located on Mrs. A. W. West's farm at the forks of the Cabin Creek road between Maysville and Poplar Flat, Lewis county. The tree is in full bloom and at the same time is burdened with large ripening pears. The sight is unusual and those who have seen this nature freak are unable to explain its occurrence.

The Woodford Sun says: An apple tree is in bloom on the Reynolds farm on the Clifton pike. J. W. Newman bought of Schoberth & Willis 100 stock ewes at $5.25 per head. Ernest Dunlap sold to Schoberth & Willis 30 head of 950 pound butcher steers at 4 1-2 cents. Schoberth & Willis have received 360 stock ewes, bought recently in Chicago.

THE DEVIL'S SOLOQUY

(By F. Fullove, Owenton, in the Owenton News.)

One night as the devil sat musing alone, In the midst of his cozy hot fire,
And trying to figure the difference in guilt
"Tween a thief and an all-round liar, His memory turned back to days of his youth And his eyes filled up with hot tears, So he took down his ledger and turned to a page Dated back about six thousand years I suppose he said as he glanced through his book, I am doing the best that I can,
For my business shows a gradual increase Ever since the creation of man.
I've cribbed a rich harvest for six thousand years.
And should be content with the yield, And give my opponent permission to get The gleaming I've left on the field.
I've gathered a very diversified crop Of merchants and farmers galore, I've bound politicians in bundles until,
My fingers are everyone sore.
I've doctors, gamblers and insurance men, I've murderers, forgers and liars, I've filled up the furnace with the gossip clan, Till they have actually put out the fires.
I've railroad conductors and jewelers to spare, Horse traders, and fiddlers to spend, Republicans, Democrats, Tories and Whigs,
And a good bunch of newspaper men But there is one class I am happy to say, That can never gain entrance here, Their souls are so dirty I am sure that they would Demoralize hell in a year.
I refer to this class, neither human nor beast, The carrion crows of the world—
Who are never content, but always hell-bent To slander some woman or girl.
There's one other class too, that I would not dare To allow come into my den;
'Tis those who delight in the letters they write,
And fail to "affix" at the end, Ten million of years in my hottest cells, Their sins could never atone.
So I gave them a match and told them to start A select little hell of their own.
I know I am king and ruler of hell, Through the darkest of the places I roam,
And I know that I'm truly a very bad man But I've got some respect for my home.
